

Sweet Taste of Success

甜絲絲 成功滋味

From September 21 to 23, The Macau Culinary Association organised its largest pastry competition to date, the Macau 6th Chapter Pastry Competition 2012. The competition was held at the 3rd China Catering Expo, hosted by the Venetian Macao.

"The objective of this competition is to provide a channel to promote culinary excellence as well as an opportunity to gain experiences and communication within the regional culinary community," noted Herve Lemonon, Executive Pastry Chef at the Grand Lapa.

The Macau Culinary Association provides an excellent opportunity for industry professionals to showcase their culinary talents and services to the general public. And this year, in order to meet the demands and expectations of today's consumers, the Association extended its categories to encourage creativity amongst its competitors.

Three new categories were added including "Bread Showpiece Display", "Wedding Cake" and "Cake Shop Challenge" alongside the "Chocolate Showpiece" and "Praline Showpiece".

This year's event proved to be an exciting competition and chief judge Kenny Kong, President of the Singapore Pastry Alliance and Executive Pastry Chef from Resort Worlds, Sentosa, Singapore observed:

"The quality is getting stronger and stronger every year and bodes well for the future of culinary talent in Macau".

The organising committee which consist of Raimund Pichlmaier (President of the Macau Culinary Association), Herve Lemonon (Executive Member), and David Wong (General Secretary) took the time to thank everyone who worked behind the scenes and also all the sponsors and supporters.

The event was organised under the patronage of the Macau Culinary Association, a member of the World Association of Cook Societies (WACS), and with the help of the supporting organisations: Angliss, Gourmet House, Chef Works, Anchor, Belcolade, DKSH, Cacao Barry, Pacmaster, F&B Solution, Bridor, Sweet Pearl, Classic Fine Foods, President, Metadesign, Fabbri, Ireks, IFT, Galaxy, Grand Lapa, and Disciples of Escoffier-Macau.
